

Jackman Busy
On a New Club;
Denies Charges

Promoter of Continental Athletic Enterprise Here Says It Owe Him $13-000; Asks for Inquiry

Now at Work in Syracuse

Holds That if Anything Is Wrong in This City It Happened Since He Left

Special Dispatch to The Tribune SYRACUSE, N. Y., Feb. 12.—William Y. Jackman, club promoter, against whom members of the Continental Athletic Club in New York made complaints to the District Attorney in that city, is organizing the Syracuse Athletic Club here and said today that he would welcome an investigation of his enterprise in New York.

When he severed his connection with the New York project last May, he had Townsend, Dix & Popen, certified accountants, of 45 Nassau Street, New York, go over the books, he said, and their report showed the accounts to be correct. The backers of the New York club, he said, still owed him $13,000.

His percentage for the work done in connection with the Continental Athletic Club amounted to $45,000, he said, and when differences arose and it was decided to cancel his contract, the directors agreed to pay him $15,000 to cancel the agreement. He has received only $2,000 of this sum, he said.

"I organized the Continental Club," he said, "spent a lot of my own money and put in a lot of hard work. I—the club—made a contract of sale for the purchase of a piece of property at Sixty-sixth Street and Central Park West. Fifty thousand dollars was paid down on it. And then a certain faction in the club got to thinking they could run it without me and they got me out."

"I've got the audit of the books.
I've got a cancellation of my original contract and I've got the money I honestly earned by my work. In addition I have a claim for $13,000, which has not been paid. I do not know anything about any missing real estate or clubhouse or funds; that's up to the club."

"When I left everything was all right. What has happened since I do not know anything about, and I don't especially care. The club can stir up all the mud they want to, but when it settles there won't be any of it on me."

The promoter has been here since last December. He is a professional promoter and had interest in a number of influential men in his enterprise here. A board of directors had been chosen and active solicitation for members had been under way about a week.
Some fifty had been enrolled. Money paid in on these memberships is in the hands of a bonded treasurer.

Plans here were for the erection of an eight-story clubhouse. Jackman's contract here was along similar lines to that in New York. He was to receive 18 per cent of the membership fees, he standing all of his own expenses.

Dancer Held; Crowd Is Free

Three hundred and fifty-eight men and four performers—three of the latter women—taken in a raid Friday night on a smoker of the Majestic Social Club in a hall at 98 Forsyth Street, were discharged yesterday by Essex Market court by Magistrate Thomas Nolan.

Three men and one woman were held in $500 bail each for examination next week, accused of violating section 1,140 of the penal law.

Those held were Sophie Trimmer, of 511 Eighth Avenue, a dancer; Samuel Stein, of 61 Forsyth Street, announcer of the show; Sam Perles, of 98 Forsyth Street, owner of the hall, and Jock Seider, of 371 East Third Street, operator of a motion picture machine.

All were held for examination February 15 and pleaded not guilty.

41 Sleeping Sickness Cases Here During Week

Two More Deaths Occur: Youth Stricken on Subway Train

Forty-one cases of sleeping sickness were reported to the Department of Health for the week ending yesterday.
Two of these were reported yesterday, and in addition there were two deaths from the mysterious malady.

Samuel Richmond, twenty-seven years old, of Manhattan, died at the New York Hospital, and Catherine Sennott, two years old, whose parents live at 99 First Place, Brooklyn, died at home.
A man believed from the papers found on him to be Philip Barber, of 1141 Broadway, about twenty years old, was removed from the Times Square station of the West Side subway to Flower Hospital yesterday, suffering from sleeping sickness. He was a passenger on a northbound train and at the end of the trip the guard was unable to arouse him.

The guard continued his efforts on the return trip, but without success.
At Times Square the guard called resistance and the man was carried to the platform.

Patrolman Berger, of the West Forty-seventh Street station, called an ambulance, bringing Dr. Nash, who diagnosed the case as encephalitis lethargica.

General Weather Conditions WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—The storm that was central off the New England coast Friday night, continued to move northeastward with increasing intensity, and its center was over Newfoundland tonight. This storm was attended by snow in New England and New York and by gales along the north Atlantic coast. Light snow has fallen also within the last twenty-four hours in the upper lake region and the Ohio and middle Mississippi valleys and rain in eastern Tennessee and in the north Pacific states.

Temperatures continued much above normal to-day throughout the plains states and the Northwest and were approximately normal in the Eastern states.

The outlook for Saturday (at Weather Bureau) is fair to-day, except that snow drifts are probable in portions of the lake region. Temperatures will be somewhat higher in the Ohio Valley, Tennessee and the east Gulf states Sunday and in portions of the Atlantic states Monday.

District Forecasts.—Eastern New York:— Generally fair to-day and to-morrow, except probably light snow extreme north portion; not much change in temperature.
Southern New England:—Fair to-day and probably to-morrow; somewhat warmer tomorrow.

Southern Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware:—Fair to-day and probably tomorrow; not much change in temperature.
Western Pennsylvania:—Cloudy to-day and to-morrow; somewhat warmer to-morrow.

Western New York:—Cloudy to-day and to-morrow; probably snow to-day and tomorrow; not much change in temperature.
